Newcastle Shipping

[Reproduced from Australian Correspondence]

Newcastle, April 30, 1876.

To the Editor of the Minerals Advocate.

We have ascertained that the viscountess of Herstmonceux has not been acting for the interests of the New South Wales Rugby Union, as her visit to the Northumberland in February was only a visit of pleasure. The viscountess was not in the country for any other purpose than to enjoy the scenery of the district.

Newcastle Morning Herald

MINERS' ADVOCATE.

TO BE PUBLISHED DAILY.

-Sat8urday, Newcastle, N.S.W.

FIRE INDUSTRIAL ANNIVERSARY.

Monday, April 30th, 1876.

In Address of the Minister, Mr. W. G. Denonvilliers, to the Miners' Benevolent Society.

At Noon, at the Colliery, Wallsend, for Tuesday, June 1st, at 11 a.m.

The Miners' Advocate.

NORTHERN IRELAND RECORD.

Saturday, May 3, 1876.

The Education Bill.

The Education Bill, which passed through its first reading last week, has been referred to the Committee of Supply. It will be remembered that the Bill was introduced in the House of Commons on the 28th of last month, and that it was read a second time on the 1st of this month. The Bill provides for the education of the children of the poorer classes in the various parts of the country, and for the establishment of schools in which the children of the poorer classes may be instructed in the elementary branches of knowledge.

Cockle Creek.

It will be seen by advertisement that a meeting has been arranged for 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 9th, at Mr. Garrett's hotel, Hunter-street, for the purpose of considering the question of the erection of a school at Cockle Creek. The meeting will be held in connection with the Newcastle Education Union, and it is expected that a large number of settlers will attend.

The Government's and Miners' Institute.

The adjourned meeting at Wallsend was held on Tuesday, April 28th, at the Government's and Miners' Institute, and was attended by a large number of members and guests. The proceedings were opened by the chairman, Mr. W. G. Denonvilliers, who delivered a short address on the importance of the institution and its work in promoting the welfare of the community.

Legislative Assembly.

Thursday, March 5th, 1876.

Ministers, in answer to a question from Mr. G. T. Smith, asked whether the Government would consider the Bill for the re-organization of the Police Forces in New South Wales, and to which the answer was in the negative.

In the absence of the Premier, Mr. G. T. Smith, asked whether the Government would consider the Bill for the re-organization of the Police Forces in New South Wales, and to which the answer was in the negative.

In the absence of the Premier, Mr. G. T. Smith, asked whether the Government would consider the Bill for the re-organization of the Police Forces in New South Wales, and to which the answer was in the negative.

The Bill was read a second time, and the Committee of Supply was appointed to consider the Bill.

Parliament of New South Wales.

Works at New Lampton.

Further particulars.

[From the Newcastle Correspondent.]

The work on the new railway from Sydney to Newcastle is progressing satisfactorily, and the line is expected to be completed in the near future.

Stoppage of a portion of the new railway.

[From the Newcastle Correspondent.]

The stoppage of the new railway at Newcastle is expected to be completed in a short time. The work is progressing satisfactorily, and the line is expected to be completed in the near future.

District News.

Lampton.

Mr. G. T. Smith, of Wallsend, spoke on the subject of the new railway at Newcastle, and stated that the work was progressing satisfactorily, and that the line was expected to be completed in the near future.

New Lampton.

On Tuesday a meeting of the Newcastle Miners' Union was held at the Union Hall, and was attended by a large number of members and guests. The proceedings were opened by the chairman, Mr. G. T. Smith, who delivered a short address on the importance of the Union and its work in promoting the welfare of the miners.

Waratah.

The Government's and Miners' Institute.

The adjourned meeting at Wallsend was held on Tuesday, April 28th, at the Government's and Miners' Institute, and was attended by a large number of members and guests. The proceedings were opened by the chairman, Mr. W. G. Denonvilliers, who delivered a short address on the importance of the institution and its work in promoting the welfare of the community.

HAMILTON.

Dr. J. B. Budge, of Melbourne, delivered an address on the subject of the new railway at Newcastle, and stated that the work was progressing satisfactorily, and that the line was expected to be completed in the near future.

Newcastle.

A meeting was held on Saturday, June 6th, at the Government's and Miners' Institute, and was attended by a large number of members and guests. The proceedings were opened by the chairman, Mr. W. G. Denonvilliers, who delivered a short address on the importance of the institution and its work in promoting the welfare of the community.

The jib is worked still in fine weather.