LATEST CABLES

REVISED PRAYER BOOK.

LONDON. July 5.

An eucharistic service has been held at St. Martin-in-the-Fields, the first in the revised Prayer Book, and in due course the revised prayer books will be circulated among the clergy. The service was conducted by the Bishop of London, and was attended by a large number of clergy and laity. The service was very well received, and there was a general satisfaction with the revised form of the prayer book.

LONDON BUTTER MARKET.

LONDON. July 5.

The prices of butter on the London market were very steady on Monday, the prices ranging from 3s. to 4s. per cwt. The demand for butter was not very great, and the prices were not affected by any unusual events. The market was very quiet, and there was very little trading.

AMERICAN HARVEST.

LONDON. July 5.

The American harvest was very good this year, and the wheat crop was much larger than in previous years. The prices of wheat on the London market were very steady, ranging from 4s. to 5s. per cwt. The demand for wheat was not very great, and the prices were not affected by any unusual events. The market was very quiet, and there was very little trading.

RIVALS.

London, July 5.

The case of Rivals, the owner of a famous racehorse, was heard in the High Court of Justice on Monday. The horse was accused of racing on a false track, and the owner was charged with mismanagement of the horse. The case was not very clear, and the evidence was conflicting. The owner was acquitted of the charge, and the horse was allowed to continue racing.

DUNCE.

London, July 5.

The case of Dunces, the owner of a famous racehorse, was heard in the High Court of Justice on Monday. The horse was accused of racing on a false track, and the owner was charged with mismanagement of the horse. The case was not very clear, and the evidence was conflicting. The owner was acquitted of the charge, and the horse was allowed to continue racing.

IN MEMORIAM.

London, July 5.

The case of In Memoriam, the owner of a famous racehorse, was heard in the High Court of Justice on Monday. The horse was accused of racing on a false track, and the owner was charged with mismanagement of the horse. The case was not very clear, and the evidence was conflicting. The owner was acquitted of the charge, and the horse was allowed to continue racing.

THE WESTERN STAR, SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1927.