CHANGING OUTLOOK NEEDED IN NEW PARLIAMENT

The approaching Commonwealth Parliament will be the most important, and the most eagerly awaited, of all Parliaments of recent years. It is the natural result of a political change which has been going on for many years. It is the logical development of a situation which has been gradually building up, and which is now reaching a point where it can no longer be delayed.

The new Parliament will be the product of a movement which has been gathering momentum for a long time. It has been the result of a series of events which have taken place in the last few years. These events have been the natural outcome of a series of political changes which have been taking place in the country.

The movement towards a more democratic form of government has been gathering strength for a long time. It has been the result of a series of events which have taken place in the country. These events have been the natural outcome of a series of political changes which have been taking place in the country.
