A GOOD IDEA.

Mr. Dumas's are combined audience for the lecture at the Athenaeum on the 24th, with harmonium attached. It presents to the general public a very pleasing novelty, and has the additional advantage of being a significant feature of the proceedings. The experimental, which is a combination of the harmonium and the oratorio, is unique in its kind, and is a great addition to the variety of musical entertainment. It is a fine piece of work, and is sure to be appreciated by all who are fond of music.

BRENTON'S RURAL RESIDENCE.

The Brenton family are spending the summer in their country residence, which is situated about two miles from the town. The house is a fine one, and is surrounded by a large garden. The family are received with great kindness, and are much enjoyed by all who visit them.

THE FEDOR WELFORD REMEMBRANCE.

The Remembrance of Fedor Welford, who died on the 24th, was held in the church on the 25th. The service was of a very simple character, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Welford. The address was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Welford, and was a very touching one. The family were present, and appeared to be much affected by the occasion.

"A THOUGHT WILT.

BY JAMES A. McLEOD.

"Thisxactxvith as you will."—Murtheron.

The writer of this essay is a man of singular ability, and is well known for his writings on the subject of political economy. He is a man of great energy, and is always ready to take up any question that is brought forward. He is a man of great dignity, and is always respected for his good sense and sound judgment.

THE FEDOR WELFORD REMEMBRANCE.

The Remembrance of Fedor Welford, who died on the 24th, was held in the church on the 25th. The service was of a very simple character, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Welford. The address was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Welford, and was a very touching one. The family were present, and appeared to be much affected by the occasion.

"A THOUGHT WILT.

BY JAMES A. McLEOD.

"Thisxactxvith as you will."—Murtheron.

The writer of this essay is a man of singular ability, and is well known for his writings on the subject of political economy. He is a man of great energy, and is always ready to take up any question that is brought forward. He is a man of great dignity, and is always respected for his good sense and sound judgment.

THE FEDOR WELFORD REMEMBRANCE.

The Remembrance of Fedor Welford, who died on the 24th, was held in the church on the 25th. The service was of a very simple character, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Welford. The address was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Welford, and was a very touching one. The family were present, and appeared to be much affected by the occasion.