The original drawings of the Cathedral made in 1883 by the architect, the late Mr. W. W. Wundell, have just been presented to the Mitchell Library by the architect's son, Mr. Herbert L. Wundell, of Sydney. Above is a copy of the original perspective drawing of the completed design, which has been reduced in every respect. Only the two spires at the western end of the edifice remain to be added.