CWA MONTHLY MEETING

On the weekly meeting, the National Council met on Tuesday, November 2nd, 1937, in the presence of the President, Mr. W. J. Langford, and the Secretary, Mrs. H. J. Mottram. The meeting was attended by a large number of members.

Mr. R. E. Thompson, who is a member of the National Council, delivered a speech on the importance of members attending the meetings. He said that the meetings were an opportunity for members to express their views and contribute to the work of the organization. He urged all members to attend the meetings and make their voices heard.

Mrs. H. J. Mottram addressed the members on the progress of the organization. She said that the organization had made significant progress in the past year and that the members had played a vital role in this progress. She thanked all members for their contributions and urged them to continue their efforts.

Mr. W. J. Langford concluded the meeting by thanking Mr. Thompson and Mrs. Mottram for their speeches. He reminded the members of the next meeting and urged them to attend.

THE BUNYIP
OF "The Speewah Station"

The story of the bunyip, a mythical creature with a long and fascinating history, was told in the meeting. The bunyip is said to live in the waterways of the Speewah Station and is known for its mysterious and elusive nature. The story told by Mr. Langford was a vivid and engaging account of the bunyip's life and its impact on the local community.

The bunyip was said to be a large, shaggy creature with a long snout and powerful limbs. It is said to be able to swim and dive with great skill and to be able to breathe underwater. The bunyip is said to be a solitary creature and is rarely seen. However, when it is seen, it is said to be a portent of ill fortune.

The story of the bunyip was a fascinating tale, and the members of the meeting were captivated by the tale. The meeting ended with a rousing discussion on the importance of preserving the local heritage and the need for the community to come together to protect the bunyip and its habitat.

THE WEDDING BELLS

LANGFORD SMITH—MOTTRAM

All Saints' Church, Ruthven, was the scene of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Mottram on Saturday, October 30th, 1937. The ceremony was presided over by the Reverend Mr. A. E. Keen, and the bride was Miss Dorothy Langford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Langford. The wedding was a beautiful and touching affair, and the couple was showered with blessings from the congregation.

Mrs. Mottram was given away by her father, Mr. T. Langford, and the bride and groom exchanged vows under the minister's guidance. The wedding was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, where guests were treated to a sumptuous meal and enjoyed the company of the couple.

The wedding was a joyous occasion, and the couple was overjoyed at the love and support they received from their friends and family. The newlyweds are expected to return to their home in Ruthven, where they will begin their married life together.

SCHOOL NOTES

The school was well represented in the National Council meeting. The members expressed their interest in the school and its activities. The meeting was an oppo

NOTES

The Trouser Club has been formed, with Mr. J. E. Smith as president. The club will meet on the first Monday of each month at the home of Mr. J. E. Smith.

The Annual Sports Day will be held on Saturday, November 10th, at the school ground. The event is open to all students, and all are encouraged to participate.

The new library has been opened, and the students are invited to explore its treasures. The library is open during school hours, and the students are encouraged to make the most of this valuable resource.

The school council has been meeting regularly, and the members are working hard to ensure the best possible education for all students. The council meets every Tuesday afternoon at the school.