Nine die when trains collide and burn

Officials consider ‘human error’

MELBOURNE, Friday.

Human error probably caused the Southern Aurora and a goods train to collide at Violet Town, about 110 miles north of Melbourne, about 7 o'clock this morning.

Railway officials said tonight the internal and external staff were being used, including the drivers of both trains.

Because of the violence of the impact and the damage to the coaches, recoveries were expected to take several hours. It was feared that the driver of the Aurora might be one of the dead.

Mr. J. W. B. Wilcox, the President of the National Union of Railway Workers, said he was told that the Southern Aurora left Melbourne at 6:15 this morning and reached Portland about 11 a.m.

Mr. B. W. S. Stojic, the Secretary of the Railway Union, said that the Aurora was used on the Sassafras line.

P.S. UNREST OVER DELAY ON SALARIES

hopleap is expected among non-official staff on Monday at the official opening of the Melbourne suburb of Caulfield. When the non-official staff fails to arrive, the official staff will be asked to present their case to the management.

A MAN OF GOD

Mr. William J. Archibald, Minister of the Federal Union of Presbyterian Churches, used the words of the Lord's prayer during another service at the union's headquarters at 11 a.m. today.

COOLER TODAY, WARM SUNDAY

Conditions are expected to improve a little later today before setting up again next Sunday.

Today's forecast, in the morning and evening, was a continuation of the consequences of September's cold front. This forecast was confirmed by the Australian National Weather Bureau on its website.

INTRODUCTION TO THE NEW TESTAMENT CHURCH

The church and the books of the Bible are the same book. Two Letters are called Evidences: Acts 1:3; Romans 12:1; 1 Peter 2:27; 1 John 5:10; 1 Thessalonians 5:2. The church is like a book, it is the union of all that is written in the Bible and the people who live by its teachings.

The church is a place where the message of God is shared. The church is also a place where the people of God gather to worship and to learn about the Bible.
