ANTHONY HORDERN'S GENUINE SALE

BOYS' DURHAM SUITS, as illustrated, are made by Anthony Horden's with that care and attention to detail which generations of makers have learned to know. Boys like "Durham" for their up-to-date "masculine" cut and for the fact that they will withstand the rough and tumble of outdoor play and retain their original smartness. Coats have patch pockets, stitched hill fold at back, and no vents. Select a Durham for your boy.

DOW PARADE AT AUBURN PARK

A large crowd attended the annual DOW Parade at Auburn Park on Tuesday afternoon. Despite the cool weather, a fair number of spectators turned out to witness the events of the day. The parade was led by the DOW Band, followed by the DOW Drill Team and various other groups. The highlight of the parade was the performance of the DOW Cheerleaders, who entertained the crowd with their lively routine. After the parade, the DOW Band performed a concert in the park, which was enjoyed by all who attended. The day was a great success, and everyone who participated in the parade and those who came to watch should be commended for their hard work and dedication.
