Dr Bambrick appointed as Master of Uni House

House appointed providing education. Industry and its for Master of the National Library of Australia, who has been named a professor at the University of Canberra.

The Master of the University is the chief executive of the University, responsible for policy formulation and the overall management of the University's educational and research programs. He is a member of the University's Board of Governors and is responsible for the University's academic, research, and administrative activities.

Dr Bambrick was a professor at the University of Canberra from 1974-1980, and has been a member of the University's Board of Governors since 1980. He has been named as the first Master of the University, which is a new role that was established in 1980.

He made significant improvements: Premier NSW Ombudsman resigns on a high

SYDNEY: Governor General Bob Hawke responded giving more education. Dr Bambrick, who is in the position of an education manager, had been asked to resign over a matter of personal business.

The Ombudsman, who is responsible for protecting the rights of citizens and ensuring that public bodies act fairly, had been asked to resign over a matter of personal business.

"I feel my presence, continuing, committed to the University," said Dr Bambrick, "and to the University, I feel my presence, continuing, committed to the University." He also said that he would continue to be involved in the University's affairs, and that he would continue to be involved in the University's affairs.

The Governor General, who is the head of the Commonwealth of Australia, has appointed Dr Bambrick as the first Master of the University.

Shelter grant for homeless

Fahrenheit services and children in the Aborigines' Children's Home have been awarded a $112,000 grant to support the homeless. The grant is to be used to support the homeless and to provide them with food and shelter.

The grant is to be used to support the homeless and to provide them with food and shelter.

Illegal immigrant placed on bond

A Yongie man who entered Australia has been sentenced to 28 months community service and a $500 fine. He was also ordered to pay $500 in costs.

The man, who is 30 years old, entered Australia on April 3, 1984, and was found to have entered the country without proper authority.

At Canberra United we're performing!

Canberra United continues to achieve high growth rates by providing competitive financial services to members. It's well worth joining!

In Brief

Christmas post dates announced

Australia Post has announced Christmas post dates for the coming year.

The dates are as follows:

- December 18, 1984: Last day for standard post
- December 21, 1984: Last day for registered post
- December 23, 1984: Last day for special post

These dates are for standard post only. For registered and special post, the dates are one day earlier.

Rent the latest sound now!

InTunes Rentals can select from a wide range of songs, whether you're looking for the latest hits or classic tracks. The service is easy to use, and you can download the songs for a small fee.

Cheque for ANU

A cheque for $50,000, presented to the Australian National University, has been used to support the homeless. The cheque was presented by President of the University, who is a member of the Australian National University's Board of Governors.

Peptide withdrawn

SYDNEY: The peptide Cyclodex 10, which is manufactured by Canberra, has been withdrawn from the market. The peptide was found to be toxic, and the manufacturer has discontinued its production.

Aborigines' Week

National Aborigines' Week, which is to be held from September 2 to September 8, has been announced.

The week is to be used to raise awareness of the issues facing Australia's Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders, and to promote understanding and respect for their culture and traditions.

RADIO RENTALS

AS SOON AS THEY INVENT IT, WE RENT IT.

81 5289 48 7822

National Library of Australia