TORONTO OBSERVED.

To the Editor of "The Sydney Morning Herald":—

Sir,—The following message was sent by a representative of the Canadian government to the British minister in Vancouver:

"The Honourable Sir,—I have the honour to inform you that the Canadian government has received a telegram from the governor of British Columbia, expressing the wish that the British minister in Vancouver might be informed of the resolution of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, which has been passed respecting the union with the Dominion of Canada.

The resolution is as follows:

"That it is the sense of this assembly that the union of British Columbia with the Dominion of Canada be dissolved, and that the province of British Columbia be governed by its own laws and institutions, and that the Dominion government be abolished.

The resolution was unanimously adopted by the assembly, and is signed by the speaker and the clerk of the assembly."

I have the honour to be, sir, your obedient servant,

[Name of representative]

[Signature]

P.S.—I have the honour to inform you that the resolution was adopted by the assembly on the 1st of January, 1885.

Yours truly,

[Name of representative]
