The Late King George V.
A Kingly King — A Modest Man.

The death of King George V this week caused worldwide sorrow and grief. The King was a man of great wisdom and kindness, who was loved by his people. He had ruled for more than 60 years, and his reign was marked by peace and prosperity.

Our New King — Edward VIII.
Hopes to Follow in His Father's Footsteps.

King Edward VIII was proclaimed at St. James's Palace on Saturday, in a ceremony attended by Mr. Winston Churchill, Mr. J. B. Priestley, and other dignitaries. The King is expected to follow in his father's footsteps and continue the work of his predecessor.

Topics of the Time.
Brief, then, What's the News?

In his latest weekly column, Mr. H. J. Bunting has written about the current events of the country. He has pointed out that the economy is improving, and that the government is taking steps to ensure a better future for all.

Personal.
Mr. C. J. Johnson, M.R.C.S., of Wingham, died on Tuesday, January 24th, at the age of 58. He was a well-known medical practitioner in the area.

Mr. W. J. May, M.R.C.S., of Wingham, died on Thursday, January 19th, at the age of 62. He was a respected doctor and surgeon.

Sporting.
Crickets.

The opening of the new season has brought much excitement to the cricket fans in the area. The teams are looking forward to a great season, and many spectators are expected to attend the matches.

Next Tuesday No 1 Public Holiday.

Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, January 25th, 26th, and 27th, will be a public holiday in the area. There will be no work on these days, and many people are expected to take advantage of the leisure time.

Australia Day.

Monday, Next, January 27.

Wingham Post Office Arrangements.

Monday until 1.30 p.m. Tuesday, 2.30 p.m. The post office will be closed on Wednesday and Thursday.

Tuesday, January 29th, 1935.

Mr. J. A. Waddington, M.R.C.S., of Wingham, has decided to close his post office on these dates.

Veteran Minister.

Death of Rev. J. A. Waddington.

The Rev. John A. Waddington, who was an active member of the community, died on January 22nd. He had been a minister for many years, and was well known for his kindness and generosity.

Obituary.

Mr. George Berlin.

Mr. J. A. Waddington, M.R.C.S., of Wingham, died on January 22nd. He was a well-known minister and was loved by all.

Ancestry Sales.

Some donations and gifts have been collected to support the local historical society. The donations will be used to purchase new equipment and to support the society's activities.

Annual Sales.

Some donations and gifts have been collected to support the local historical society. The donations will be used to purchase new equipment and to support the society's activities.

Tuncurry Anniversary Day Week-end Gala.

The Tuncurry Anniversary Day Week-end Gala will be held on Saturday, February 4th and 5th. The event will feature a variety of activities, including sports, music, and entertainment.

Tuncurry Wants Aeroscram.

Minister Sympathetic.

The Minister has expressed his sympathy with the people of Tuncurry, who are looking for an aeroscram to replace their old one.

House of the Week.

The House of the Week is a new building in the area. It has been built with the latest technology and is expected to be a great asset to the community.

Tuncurry Touring Cricketers.

The Tuncurry Touring Cricketers are looking forward to a great season. They are practicing hard and are expected to do well in the coming matches.

1200 Miles Travelled.

Mr. F. H. Johnson, of Limington, has travelled 1200 miles to visit his relatives in the far north. He has been away for several weeks and is now returning home.