The Oddfellows' Social.

The above social took place in the Oddfellows' Institute last night, when a goodly number of members and their friends were present.

Mrs. Wallis, who is the new President of the Lodge, and was an ex-officio member, took the chair, and the meeting was opened with a short prayer. Mrs. Wallis then read a paper on the social and charitable work of the Oddfellows' Institution, and the meeting was adjourned.

The Lodge was then called to order, and the following officers were elected: W. B. Wallis, President; T. H. Mason, Treasurer; T. H. Harper, Secretary.

Wedding.

A very handsome wedding was performed at the Masonic Hall last night, which will be remembered as the most splendid ceremony ever witnessed in the town. The bride and groom were Mrs. J. H. Harper and Mr. T. H. Harper, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Wallis. The bride and groom were dressed in the most magnificent manner, and the attendance consisted of many of the leading citizens of the town.
