LOCAL & GENERAL

ELOOP DAY CELEBRATION BY THE

The local schoolchildren of the Cootamundra Public School will celibrate E looph day this year with a Stadium show. The local school-cowboys and girls will be among the performers, and a number of outstanding guest performers will also be presented.

Cootamundra Electrician Institute

At the completion of the second year of the institute’s existence, the students will be given a public demonstration of their work. The education of the students will be done in conjunction with the local Electrical Trades Union.}

CRUMBS

All roads led to Rome on Wednesday when the Council of the Cootamundra Chamber of Commerce met to discuss a future campaign.