"ARE WE DOWNHEARTED?"

CANDIDATES' CHEERY COMMENTS ON THE CAMPAIGN.

Indefatigably more enthusiastic and generally cheerful than most of them, is helping on the triumph of the campaign by personal appearances.

Mr. J. C. Cutmore, who is the candidate for the seat of New England, has been largely responsible for the success of the campaign. He has been in the forefront of the movement and has been seen in almost every corner of the district.

Mr. J. C. Cutmore remarked that in his opinion the campaign had been a triumph of the people over the politicians. He said that the people had voted for a candidate who was not only a good man, but who was also a good democrat.

Mr. J. C. Cutmore also stated that the campaign had been a great success and that he was confident that the people would return him to Parliament.

IILLAWARRA NOTES.

THE AWARD MET.

The decision of the election of Mr. J. C. Cutmore as the Member for the seat of New England is expected to have a profound effect on the political life of the district. The decision of the people to return Mr. J. C. Cutmore to Parliament is a great victory for the democratic movement and a great setback for the political bosses.

The decision of the people to return Mr. J. C. Cutmore to Parliament is a great victory for the democratic movement and a great setback for the political bosses.

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN LABOR PARTY.

THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

A SPLENDID GATHERING.

The fourth annual conference of the South Australian Labor Party was held in the Town Hall, Greenfield, on Wednesday evening, May 13, under the presidency of Mr. H. R. E. Roberts (the present President of the Party). No fewer than 150 delegates, representing all parts of the State, signed the attendance roll, including Mr. J. J. Scott, the office of president of the Party.

The President, Mr. H. R. E. Roberts, welcomed the delegates and addressed them on the importance of the work of the Party. He said that the Party had made great progress since its formation, and that it was now the largest party in the State.

The President also paid tribute to the work of the late Mr. J. J. Scott, who had been a staunch supporter of the Party.

The conference then adjourned, to meet on Monday next, at the same time and place.