AUSTRALIA DAY.

Wyoing and District Rugby Football.

A team, supposed to have been a representative one, from the District Rugby Football Club, was defeated by Woyong on Saturday last, to assist in a collection for the special benefits of the club. The style of the original team formed the others. On Saturday, the members of the club held a meeting, and sporting arrangements were taken for the day. The meeting adjourned at 7 p.m.

Football.

WYONG CREEK.

Australia Day is the sole topic of talk in Woyong. The clock strikes 11 a.m. Sunday morning, and Sunday is a day to be observed by all the people of the district, as it is the anniversary of the foundation of the colony. The day will be passed in some of the usual ways, and the children will have a holiday from school.

The sale of work and auction of goods to be held in the Woyong Creek school during the day will also be interesting. The auction will commence at 11 a.m., and will continue until 5 p.m. The sale will consist of articles of various kinds, and will be conducted by Mr. J. A. Green, of Sydney. The proceeds will be devoted to the Australian Day Fund.

Death of Private Blackwell.

Two weeks ago, to see the front, the late C. Blackwell, a resident of Woyong, was killed. He was a soldier for 15 years, and had served in the Boer War. He was a brave soldier, and was much respected by his comrades.

The sale of work and auction of goods to be held in the Woyong Creek school during the day will also be interesting. The auction will commence at 11 a.m., and will continue until 5 p.m. The sale will consist of articles of various kinds, and will be conducted by Mr. J. A. Green, of Sydney. The proceeds will be devoted to the Australian Day Fund.

Death of Private Blackwell.

Two weeks ago, to see the front, the late C. Blackwell, a resident of Woyong, was killed. He was a soldier for 15 years, and had served in the Boer War. He was a brave soldier, and was much respected by his comrades.

The sale of work and auction of goods to be held in the Woyong Creek school during the day will also be interesting. The auction will commence at 11 a.m., and will continue until 5 p.m. The sale will consist of articles of various kinds, and will be conducted by Mr. J. A. Green, of Sydney. The proceeds will be devoted to the Australian Day Fund.

Death of Private Blackwell.

Two weeks ago, to see the front, the late C. Blackwell, a resident of Woyong, was killed. He was a soldier for 15 years, and had served in the Boer War. He was a brave soldier, and was much respected by his comrades.

The sale of work and auction of goods to be held in the Woyong Creek school during the day will also be interesting. The auction will commence at 11 a.m., and will continue until 5 p.m. The sale will consist of articles of various kinds, and will be conducted by Mr. J. A. Green, of Sydney. The proceeds will be devoted to the Australian Day Fund.

Death of Private Blackwell.

Two weeks ago, to see the front, the late C. Blackwell, a resident of Woyong, was killed. He was a soldier for 15 years, and had served in the Boer War. He was a brave soldier, and was much respected by his comrades.

The sale of work and auction of goods to be held in the Woyong Creek school during the day will also be interesting. The auction will commence at 11 a.m., and will continue until 5 p.m. The sale will consist of articles of various kinds, and will be conducted by Mr. J. A. Green, of Sydney. The proceeds will be devoted to the Australian Day Fund.

Death of Private Blackwell.

Two weeks ago, to see the front, the late C. Blackwell, a resident of Woyong, was killed. He was a soldier for 15 years, and had served in the Boer War. He was a brave soldier, and was much respected by his comrades.

The sale of work and auction of goods to be held in the Woyong Creek school during the day will also be interesting. The auction will commence at 11 a.m., and will continue until 5 p.m. The sale will consist of articles of various kinds, and will be conducted by Mr. J. A. Green, of Sydney. The proceeds will be devoted to the Australian Day Fund.

Death of Private Blackwell.

Two weeks ago, to see the front, the late C. Blackwell, a resident of Woyong, was killed. He was a soldier for 15 years, and had served in the Boer War. He was a brave soldier, and was much respected by his comrades.

The sale of work and auction of goods to be held in the Woyong Creek school during the day will also be interesting. The auction will commence at 11 a.m., and will continue until 5 p.m. The sale will consist of articles of various kinds, and will be conducted by Mr. J. A. Green, of Sydney. The proceeds will be devoted to the Australian Day Fund.

Death of Private Blackwell.

Two weeks ago, to see the front, the late C. Blackwell, a resident of Woyong, was killed. He was a soldier for 15 years, and had served in the Boer War. He was a brave soldier, and was much respected by his comrades.

The sale of work and auction of goods to be held in the Woyong Creek school during the day will also be interesting. The auction will commence at 11 a.m., and will continue until 5 p.m. The sale will consist of articles of various kinds, and will be conducted by Mr. J. A. Green, of Sydney. The proceeds will be devoted to the Australian Day Fund.

Death of Private Blackwell.

Two weeks ago, to see the front, the late C. Blackwell, a resident of Woyong, was killed. He was a soldier for 15 years, and had served in the Boer War. He was a brave soldier, and was much respected by his comrades.

The sale of work and auction of goods to be held in the Woyong Creek school during the day will also be interesting. The auction will commence at 11 a.m., and will continue until 5 p.m. The sale will consist of articles of various kinds, and will be conducted by Mr. J. A. Green, of Sydney. The proceeds will be devoted to the Australian Day Fund.