A Union and a Banquet.

The melted action of Bishop, clergy, and people, has been vividly recorded in the accounts of the audience in the Cathedral at Port Augusta, on Sunday, September 5th, when the Bishop was in his 60th year, and had completed 32 years of public ministry. The Bishop is well known to many of us, and he has been the principal in many of the important events of the religious history of the diocese.

to yield themselves to the great blessing that they have received. The Bishop, of course, would be pleased to be present, and the service would be a great success.

Next Sunday.

The Bishop will again be in residence, and will be present at the service. The service will be held at 11 A.M., and will be followed by a public meeting, at which the Bishop will be present, and will be addressed by the Bishop and other dignitaries.

In Memoriam Window.

A stained glass window is to be erected in the Cathedral at Port Augusta, in commemoration of the late Bishop of the Diocese, the Right Reverend Dr. F. A. B., DD. The window will be of great beauty, and will be a fitting tribute to the memory of the late Bishop. The window will be dedicated on Sunday, September 5th, and will be unveiled by the Bishop and other dignitaries.

Catholic Schools and Scholarships.

In the course of his remarks in reply to the address, the Bishop said that the Catholic Schools were doing great work in the Diocese, and were contributing a great deal to the education of the children of the community. The Kapunda Reformatory.

Our Kaunda correspondent writes—On Monday last Mr. and Mrs. McArthur and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. K. Harvey were at Kapunda, and were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. K. Harvey. The meal was a very good one, and the company most cordial. The next day Mr. and Mrs. J. W. K. Harvey were at the Kapunda Reformatory, and were entertained by the Master and Matron. The Coming Catholic Church.

The sectional committee charged with the work of the Catholic Church in the Northern Territory has (says the Catholic) made a report, which is now before the Church, and which is expected to be adopted shortly. The report is expected to be adopted shortly.
