NEW SAFEGUARDS IN COMMUNIST BILL

Suspension of Habeas Corpus

In a move to head off Communist起来的势头, the government has introduced a bill which, if passed, will suspend habeas corpus and other legal rights. The bill has been described as a "legitimate" measure to protect the state from subversion.

Order in Japan

A Prompt Move Against the Communists

With the elections just over the Supreme Commander in Japan, General MacArthur, by allowing members of the central executive of the Communist party, is taking no chances of the new Government being undermined by a rash of inspired strikes and organised industrial stoppages.

CLEAR COURSE FOR STATE GOVERNMENT

Tribute Paid to Late Dr. Button

Ballarat. Today. The body of Dr. C. N. Button will be buried in the new cemetery of the Bathurst Protestant Church. The funeral service will be held at 3 p.m. to-day.

FARMERS

Will Repair Damaged fences

New South Wales farmers are being urged to repair damaged fences on their properties. The government has announced a program of financial assistance to farmers who undertake to repair fences.

Tribute Paid to Late Dr. Button

Ballarat. Today. The body of Dr. C. N. Button will be buried in the new cemetery of the Bathurst Protestant Church. The funeral service will be held at 3 p.m. to-day.

U.S. AWARDS FOR SERVICE

According to the latest report from the U.S. Department of Defense, seven Australians have been awarded medals for their service in the war. Among them is Flight Lieutenant J. H. Smith, who was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for his service in the R.A.F.