The Gresham Hotel, No. 18, Queen Street, Brisbane, will close its rooms, &c., at 10 o'clock on Saturday, July 14th, 1898, at which time the premises will be sold by public auction, to the highest bidder. The sale will be commenced at 11 o'clock, and will continue throughout the day and night. The premises are situated in the heart of the business district, and are well adapted for a variety of purposes. The building is divided into two parts, the larger of which is occupied by a hotel, and the smaller by a shop. The hotel consists of three stories, with a cellar below, and contains thirty rooms, a large dining-room, and several other rooms for various purposes. The shop, which is on the ground floor, is well fitted up, and is in a good state of repair. The hotel has been very successful during its term of occupancy, and has been well patronised. The sale will be conducted by Messrs. Cameron Bros., and the conditions of sale will be sent to all interested parties. The sale is to be held at the premises, and all persons desiring to bid are requested to be present at the time appointed.
