AN EARLY AUSTRALIAN COIN.

The above reproduction of a specimen of early Australian mintage is of particular interest as it was coined during the Governorship of New South Wales by Major-General Maitland, and is valued as a numismatic curiosity. It is a denomination of fifteen pence, and is highly prized by collectors for its historical importance.

THE SALTWATER RIVER FLOOD.

1. Looking East from the Golden Bridge.
2. Kensington Road from the Railway Bridge.
3. Dead Sheep Hanging on Barbed Wire Fence at Flemington Racecourse.
5. Children Carrying Home Wreckage at Williamstown.
6. Debris on Williamstown Beach.
7. Some of the Drowned Sheep at Melbourne Abattoirs.