BIG STORM
Trees Suffer

CORN CROSSED DAMAGED
By Halden Wilson, B.N.

The area of Australia, as "The Daily Examiner" of last week, reported that the recent storm that had occurred had caused extensive damage to the corn crops. The storm had hit the state hard, with reports of extensive loss of crops and damage to property.

WHEAT BELLS BENEFIT
Heavy Storm in Vaupell.

A heavy storm hit Vaupell last night, causing extensive damage to wheat crops. The storm had lasted for several hours, with heavy winds and rain causing widespread damage.

THE MARKETS
Advance in Butter

Following reports of a significant increase in the price of butter, the market has seen a rise in demand. The recent storm has also contributed to the increase in demand, as the storm has caused widespread damage to corn crops, leading to a shortage of cornmeal.

LOCAL AND GENERAL
Lighthouse Dismantled

The lighthouse that had been standing for several years has been dismantled. The decision to dismantle the lighthouse was made due to the storm that had hit the area, which had caused extensive damage to the structure.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR
The View of the World

The editor has received many letters from readers expressing their views on the current events. The majority of the letters have expressed concern about the recent storm, with many readers calling for action to be taken to prevent similar events in the future.

SUPERVISED COUPLES
The Family, by Miss. J. M. Haynes

The Family, by Miss. J. M. Haynes, is a novel that has been praised for its portrayal of family life. The novel has been well-received by readers, who have praised its depiction of the complexities of family relationships.

WINTER STORM
North Coast Competition

A winter storm has hit the North Coast, causing widespread disruption. The storm has led to the closure of many roads and schools, and has caused power outages in some areas.

惮

COMMISSIONER MAXWELL
Visit to Grafton

Commissioner Maxwell, who is responsible for the North Coast, has visited Grafton to assess the damage caused by the recent storm. The commissioner has expressed concern about the situation and has called for action to be taken to prevent future storms.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The editor has received many letters from readers expressing their views on the current events. The majority of the letters have expressed concern about the recent storm, with many readers calling for action to be taken to prevent similar events in the future.