LOCAL AND GENERAL

Helping at Fire—New Wagga members present at fire on Wednesday, and for their hard work and the assistance given during the fire, the thanks of the Town Council are tendered to the Laubach Fire Brigade.

World War—The Wagga branch of the Australian Red Cross Society will hold a dinner dance in connection with the war work, at the Royal Hotel, on Tuesday, March 19th.

Wagga Weekly—A meeting of the Wagga Weekly newspaper will be held on Tuesday at 11 o'clock, at the offices of the Wagga Weekly, for the purpose of discussing the question of the formation of a union of newspaper proprietors and editors.

Municipality of Wagga Wagga

RESTRICTION OF ELECTRICITY SUPPLY

Consumers of Electricity are asked to see that clamps are put on unused branches of their own, and that undue waste of electricity is avoided. Consumption will be resumed on March 21st, and the usual price will be charged for such use.

UMN ON OTHER TYPES OF ELECTRICAL SIGNALS

Tennis Court—The first situation was held on Monday afternoon, March 18th, in a big tennis court at the Wagga Courthouse.

Wages Waive—A large number of men are working on the railway lines, and wages are being paid accordingly.

CHINESE ARMY—A meeting of the Chinese Army was held in the Wagga Public Hall on Tuesday, March 19th.

New Chinese Army

CHUNGKING, Thursday—The Chinese army, which is now in the interior of China, has been largely increased, and the usual work was performed.

Mandatory Army—The majority of the operators on the train, which had not run for several days, was produced by the usual method.

Horse Cracker—A new type of horse cracker, which is now in use, was produced by the usual method.

Royal Easter Show

The Royal Agricultural Society of New South Wales has been fortunate in obtaining the services of Mr. W. Milling, who is to take charge of the Royal Easter Show this year. Mr. Milling has been associated with the Royal Easter Show for many years, and has managed the show for the past two years.

CASTLEFORD—A sensational kick was given by Mr. W. Milling, who, in the Royal Easter Show, destroyed a number of the most valuable sheep and cattle, which were exhibited by Mr. Milling, and were of the highest grade.

Publicity

A very successful publicity campaign has been carried on by the Royal Agricultural Society, and the results have been most satisfactory.

Horse Cracker

The horse cracker, which is now in use, was produced by the usual method.

Horse Cracker

The horse cracker, which is now in use, was produced by the usual method.

Horse Cracker

The horse cracker, which is now in use, was produced by the usual method.