THE WEEKLY TIMES.

August 6, 1873.

11

Slight variations were noticed in the weather during the past week, and generally fell somewhere between the extremes of frost and coldness.

The highest temperature recorded during the week was 63°F., and the lowest 38°F., with a mean of 50°F.

The average amount of rainfall was 0.2 inches, with a range from 0.0 to 0.4 inches.

The humidity remained moderate, with a range of 40% to 70% RH.

The wind was variable, with a range of 5 to 25 mph, and a mean speed of 10 mph.

The barometric pressure was stable, with a range of 29.4 to 29.7 inches Hg, and a mean of 29.5 inches Hg.

Overall, the weather conditions were typical of the season, with mild temperatures and variable weather patterns.

[Continuation of the article about the weekly news and events, including local and national news, as well as advertisements and notices.]