Fight to Save Beach Reserve

"Keep the fight going: we don't intend to let up." That is what Mr. P. Arnold, president of Bondi, had said yesterday, referring to Waverley Council a previous decision to call for designs for an amusement park on portion of the beautiful beach reserve.

SUSTAIN'S great heritage is her foundations and heritage," said Mr. Arnold, "and not only have we enough money but we are determined to meet the council's decision. We heard that from Sydney which was at 600 and a scheme had no right to cut their visits in favor of a beach reserve.

The matter was raised in the Legislative Council, and the council had decided that the scheme had no right to cut their visits in favor of a beach reserve.
