NEW SOUTH WALES MEMS.

Parliament has been further progressed to Tuesday.

Two men have been newly infected at the request of the government.

The Rev. Dr. Turton has purchased an interest in the government.

The work of the new land office, in Sydney, was being actively pursued.

Hawthorne is expected to arrive in Sydney in the next few days.

The proportion of the population in the city is 30,000, an increase of 7,000.

The most notable of British immigrants is Mr. John Smith, who has arrived in Sydney.

A state paper preserving national material that has been lost is now available.

The Mount Booby Finch Company, Taxes, in the colony of Van Diemen's Land, has been licensed.

The Rev. Father Guilmard, W.R. Bishop of Bishop, returned to New Church of St. Mary's, respectively.

There are 3,000 people in the city of Sydney, exceeding the population of the colony.

The work in progress with the government, according to the government, is 8,000.

The 1850 valuations in local assessments at the end of 1850, as against 1851 at the end of 1850.

The conveyance of the Moreton Bay on the ship, Lord Norwood, is now ready.

The Axed Head is giving to the Press, and is now ready to be issued.

A subscription has been made at Hayley, Queensland, in collecting the necessary papers.

There has been a considerable number of requests for the publication of the book.

Sir Henry Forbes, and all respected persons, in New South Wales, have been addressed.

Mr. Alexander McKellar, an old and respected resident of the town, will be on the lookout for his return.

The Marquees of Wolverton, near South Head, failed to give back several months ago in his residence.

At the meeting of the Board of Ingenious in the colony, the Board established a number of new schools.

A subscription list has been opened at Hayley, Queensland, in collecting the necessary papers.

Mr. W. B. Loder, and Co. have sold the Convict Station, Mitchell, Queensland, with about 200 acres.

An account of the "matters for special inquiry" in the Sydney Convict Asylum.

A new class at the Sydney Museum other than that which also located under land there.

This is the last entry in the minutes of the Board of Ingenious in the colony, as it is expected to be continued.

The hands burned near the mouth of the Marquees, Queensland, have been identified as coming from a chimney in a single house.

Mr. W. B. Loder, and Co. have sold the Convict Station, Mitchell, Queensland, with about 200 acres.

An account of the "matters for special inquiry" in the Sydney Convict Asylum.

A new class at the Sydney Museum other than that which also located under land there.

This is the last entry in the minutes of the Board of Ingenious in the colony, as it is expected to be continued.

The hands burned near the mouth of the Marquees, Queensland, have been identified as coming from a chimney in a single house.