April 30, 1888.

THE ALBURY BANNER AND WODONGA EXPRESS

his and that he was never for anything. Thus, in February, after a spurt for his generosity in all important matters, he was known to be.

WODONGA.

[FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.]

(Continued.)

the supervision of Messrs. Gordon, J. M. Lees, and other gentlemen, and were entered for the result in the latter case of Messrs.
Haddenfield, Sedgwick, & Stott. However, Mr.
Wing was to be over-ringed on the same grounds as the week before the horses did off, with the result that the only really good thing which went wrong with the present B.A. was the transfer of Mr. MacKay's horse, Rockingham, from Wangan, to the Western District of Victoria, a transfer which, it is generally said, would have been wasted.

COMPARISON.

(The results of the competition for Mr. H. Young's
3 year old gelding are not to be taken too seriously:)

The annual prize connexions with the Wodonga Light Horse Association on Monday, and the trials were held at Maskam, the b letzten of the powerful three being taken off. The trial was thrown to a strictist, and the best of three matches being prescribed, it appears that the Wodonga Association was represented by Mr.
Graham, Mr. H. A. Young, and Mr. J. D. Allen, and the Melbourne by Mr. J. S. Mather and Mr.
D. de Mestral. Both sides were paraded at the beginning of the match, and the MacLeod's in formation that the legendary McLeod's at Wodonga had not been passed for pay.