Italian Troops Land at Corfu.

The Italian government announced on Saturday that Italian troops had landed at Corfu and had captured the town. On that news, the Greek government has met in urgent session.

The Italian government explained that the landing was made in pursuance of the terms of the treaty of peace, which provided for the occupation of the islands of the Adriatic Sea, and for the Italian occupation of Corfu during the war.

The Greek government has expressed its regret at the landing, but has said that it will not accept the explanation.
