Mr. Shaw Hendry

Gives Highlights on Early Broken Hill

Camel trains loading for outback, and beer at 2d. a pint are among the early memories of Mr. Shaw Hendry, who, after 18 years in the stores department at the South mine, will retire at the end of this month.

On a trip to the site of the Broken Hill mine, Mr. Hendry was present in 1884 when a wagon train of 20 camels was sent to the outback. He remembers the excitement and the early days of the gold rush.

Mr. Hendry also recalls the days when beer was sold at 2d. a pint. "That was a change," he said, "but it was a necessary one as the population increased."}

Bathing Suits

Cause of Stir

Sydney—Three men were put out of Watson's Baths after a struggle because two of them were wearing abbreveed shorts.

The proprietor of the baths, Mr. W. J. Brown, said that he had been receiving complaints from patrons about the shorts.

"If we allow them," he said, "we will attract wrong people to the baths."
