THE NORTH AUSTRALIAN, SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY 13, 1888

Telegramraphic News.

SOUTH AMERICA.

The border railway has been temporarily closed by Friday, and a number of the railway employees are not allowed to go to work.

Western Australia.

In Friday's issue of the Brayton, the following report was published:—

"A large number of the railway employees are not allowed to go to work, and the railway has been temporarily closed."