ANCIENT ORDER OF FROTH BLOWERS

World's Most Picturesque Friendly Society

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN BRANCH CONTEMPLATED

At least one membership card of the Ancient Order of Froth Blowers has reached South Australia, and there is a probability of a branch of the order, the fantastic rules and regulations of which make it the most picturesque of its kind in the world, being established in this State.

The ancient organization is not a failure. Though it accepts a peculiar method of raising its internal funds, which is also arbitrary, it is still a going concern. Established in England it has already grown to be the largest of the English orders of the Black Art and is doubtless of some importance among the societies with similar rules in the world. Owing to its terms, which are not very different from those of the English Order of the Bean Curd Eaters, Froth Blowers as an international order is in many respects an admirable one. At the last annual meeting it was reported that over twenty thousand dollars in gold had been raised and the income of the district manager in London and his assistants per annum is stated to be several thousand dollars. A remarkable feature of the order is that the annual meeting of the central office is held in London, a fact which is of some importance to the members of the Australian branch. The order is not a failure, as it carries on a considerable business with a branch in each State of the British Commonwealth, and the annual meeting is held at a specified place. The order is not a failure, as it carries on a considerable business with a branch in each State of the British Commonwealth, and the annual meeting is held at a specified place.

OFF FOR THE HOLIDAYS—There was an unusual lapse in North Terrace as the Easter holidays approached in the leading up of some service cars with passengers and their luggage for the country.

INDUSTRIAL MISSION

Exclusion of Press

EFFORTS AT MEDIATION

SPECIAL TO "THE MAIL," NEW YORK, April 13—Sir Hugh Division, the American Consul-General, is actively engaged in the mediation of the dispute between the Australian Commonwealth Government and the South African Government. The dispute is over the transfer of certain properties in South Africa to the Commonwealth Government. It is understood that Mr. Division has been in touch with both Governments and that the matter is now being worked out. The dispute is over the transfer of certain properties in South Africa to the Commonwealth Government. It is understood that Mr. Division has been in touch with both Governments and that the matter is now being worked out.

UNDER IRON RULE

Russia Today

Doesn't Understand Music

According to a story which has been circulating in the last few days, a Russian Government official has recently been reported to have failed to understand the music of the ballet in a public performance. However, the story is not true, as the official was in attendance at the performance and was able to follow the music. The story is not true, as the official was in attendance at the performance and was able to follow the music.

MISERY AND UNREST

In America, the worker is still the brunt of the struggle for a better life. The struggle is not yet won, but the workers are fighting for a better tomorrow. The struggle is not yet won, but the workers are fighting for a better tomorrow.

RESTRICTING YACHT RIGS

Incident at Covers in 1826

A SHIPMASTERS’ RULE

Mr. Paget Hovenden

The incident tells of a shipmaster who failed to make his vessel fit for sea and lost his vessel and all hands.

DRIVING FORBIDDER

Mr. Paget Hovenden

The incident tells of a shipmaster who failed to make his vessel fit for sea and lost his vessel and all hands.

The report of the accident was as follows:—

"The vessel was not fit for sea, and the shipmaster had not given the necessary orders for her being taken in hand. The vessel was lost, and all hands, with the exception of the shipmaster, were saved."

The shipmaster, who was a man of some experience, was much excited by the news which reached him, and was in an agony of anxiety for the fate of his vessel.

Incident at Covers in 1826

Incident at Covers in 1826

BURying THE HATCHET

The incident tells of a shipmaster who failed to make his vessel fit for sea and lost his vessel and all hands.

NEWLAND MEMORIAL CHURCH

Foundation Stone Laid

VICTOR HARELB, Today

Today the cornerstone of the new St. Saviour’s Memorial Church, Norwood, was laid by the Governor-General in Council, Sir William Robinson, K.C.M.G., C.M.G., on behalf of the Church in the presence of the clergy, the Governor-General in Council, and the members of the Church.

The cornerstone of the new St. Saviour’s Memorial Church, Norwood, was laid by the Governor-General in Council, Sir William Robinson, K.C.M.G., C.M.G., on behalf of the Church in the presence of the clergy, the Governor-General in Council, and the members of the Church.

A SHIPMASTERS’ RULE

Mr. Paget Hovenden

The incident tells of a shipmaster who failed to make his vessel fit for sea and lost his vessel and all hands.

The report of the accident was as follows:—

"The vessel was not fit for sea, and the shipmaster had not given the necessary orders for her being taken in hand. The vessel was lost, and all hands, with the exception of the shipmaster, were saved."

Mr. Paget Hovenden

The incident tells of a shipmaster who failed to make his vessel fit for sea and lost his vessel and all hands.

MR. CHEV’S EVASIONS

Comment by "The Times"

"INSULTING SUGGESTIONS"

Published in "The Times," London, 20th April

"The Times," in a leading article, has called attention to the fact that Mr. C. H. E. B., the chairman of the Board of Trade, has made some insulting suggestions in his recent speeches.

The Times," in a leading article, has called attention to the fact that Mr. C. H. E. B., the chairman of the Board of Trade, has made some insulting suggestions in his recent speeches.

As chairman of the Board of Trade, Mr. C. H. E. B. has a great deal of power and influence in the country, and his every move is watched with care by the public. His recent speeches have not been free from criticism, and many people have been led to believe that he is not doing his duty to the country.

"The Times," in a leading article, has called attention to the fact that Mr. C. H. E. B., the chairman of the Board of Trade, has made some insulting suggestions in his recent speeches.