THE CLARENCE AND RICHMOND EXAMINER. SATURDAY, DECEMBER 18

SYDNEY AND LOCAL COMMERCIAL.

"The Examiner"—SATURDAY, DECEMBER 18

GRAFTON DISTRICT SCHOOL.

The school was opened on Tuesday by Mr. F. M. Owen, the Principal of the Agricultural College, Lismore. The opening was the first public meeting held at the school, and the occasion was marked by the presence of a number of officials and students from the Agricultural College, Lismore.

TRAINING IN AGRICULTURE.

Mr. F. M. Owen, the Principal of the Agricultural College, Lismore, opened the school on Tuesday by addressing the students. He spoke of the importance of training in agriculture and the progress of the school. The school was established to provide training in agriculture for young people who wish to become farmers.

POLICE COURTS.

The Police Court was in session on Friday, and a number of cases were heard. The cases included theft, assault, and breach of the peace.

FARMERS' MEETING.

A farmers' meeting was held on Thursday at the Hotel, Lismore. The meeting was attended by a number of farmers from the surrounding district. The main topic of discussion was the state of the crops and the prospects for the future.

A STRIKE SUPPRESSION BILL.

Introduced in Parliament.

The Bill was introduced by Mr. F. M. Owen, the Principal of the Agricultural College, Lismore. The Bill provides for the suppression of strikes and the protection of workers.

THE GREAT COAL MINING CRISIS.

PROSPECTS OF SETTLEMENT HOPFUL.

The crisis in the coal mining industry was discussed at a meeting held on Thursday. The meeting was attended by a number of workers and representatives of the mining companies.

THE FREE TRADE LEAGUE.

The Free Trade League was in session on Saturday. The meeting was attended by a number of members of the league, who discussed the state of the trade and the prospects for the future.

THE LIBERAL PARTY.

The Liberal Party was in session on Saturday. The meeting was attended by a number of members of the party, who discussed the state of the party and the prospects for the future.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

The Constitutional Amendments Bill was introduced in Parliament on Thursday. The Bill provides for the amendment of the Constitution, including the introduction of a federal system of government.

THE SCHOOL OF ARTS.

The School of Arts was opened on Thursday. The opening was the first public meeting held at the school, and the occasion was marked by the presence of a number of officials and students from the School of Arts.

COMMERCIAL AGENTS.

Mr. F. M. Owen, the Principal of the Agricultural College, Lismore, opened the school on Tuesday by addressing the students. He spoke of the importance of training in commerce and the progress of the school.

FAMOUS TRAVELERS.

A famous traveler, Mr. J. H. Smith, was in town on Thursday. Mr. Smith spoke of his travels around the world and the places he had visited.

THE NORTHERN LIVINGSTON.

The Northern Livingston was in session on Saturday. The meeting was attended by a number of members of the Livingston, who discussed the state of the livingston and the prospects for the future.

THE SCHOOLS OF ARTS.

The Schools of Arts was opened on Thursday. The opening was the first public meeting held at the schools, and the occasion was marked by the presence of a number of officials and students from the Schools of Arts.

COMMERCIAL AGENTS.

Mr. F. M. Owen, the Principal of the Agricultural College, Lismore, opened the school on Tuesday by addressing the students. He spoke of the importance of training in commerce and the progress of the school.

FAMOUS TRAVELERS.

A famous traveler, Mr. J. H. Smith, was in town on Thursday. Mr. Smith spoke of his travels around the world and the places he had visited.

THE NORTHERN LIVINGSTON.

The Northern Livingston was in session on Saturday. The meeting was attended by a number of members of the Livingston, who discussed the state of the livingston and the prospects for the future.

THE SCHOOLS OF ARTS.

The Schools of Arts was opened on Thursday. The opening was the first public meeting held at the schools, and the occasion was marked by the presence of a number of officials and students from the Schools of Arts.

COMMERCIAL AGENTS.

Mr. F. M. Owen, the Principal of the Agricultural College, Lismore, opened the school on Tuesday by addressing the students. He spoke of the importance of training in commerce and the progress of the school.

FAMOUS TRAVELERS.

A famous traveler, Mr. J. H. Smith, was in town on Thursday. Mr. Smith spoke of his travels around the world and the places he had visited.

THE NORTHERN LIVINGSTON.

The Northern Livingston was in session on Saturday. The meeting was attended by a number of members of the Livingston, who discussed the state of the livingston and the prospects for the future.

THE SCHOOLS OF ARTS.

The Schools of Arts was opened on Thursday. The opening was the first public meeting held at the schools, and the occasion was marked by the presence of a number of officials and students from the Schools of Arts.

COMMERCIAL AGENTS.

Mr. F. M. Owen, the Principal of the Agricultural College, Lismore, opened the school on Tuesday by addressing the students. He spoke of the importance of training in commerce and the progress of the school.

FAMOUS TRAVELERS.

A famous traveler, Mr. J. H. Smith, was in town on Thursday. Mr. Smith spoke of his travels around the world and the places he had visited.

THE NORTHERN LIVINGSTON.

The Northern Livingston was in session on Saturday. The meeting was attended by a number of members of the Livingston, who discussed the state of the livingston and the prospects for the future.

THE SCHOOLS OF ARTS.

The Schools of Arts was opened on Thursday. The opening was the first public meeting held at the schools, and the occasion was marked by the presence of a number of officials and students from the Schools of Arts.