COMMENOMATION OF ANZAC DAY

THOUSANDS PAY HOMAGE AT W'TON SERVICES

The crowd, estimated to be 25,000, gathered at Anzac Day service, at St John’s Cathedral, W'iton, on Sunday. The service was conducted by Archdeacon Yent on the morning of Anzac Day.

Anzac Day is a day of remembrance for those who served and sacrificed their lives in the nation’s wars. It is a day of reflection and respect for those who fought for their country and for those who serve today.

Anzac Day is celebrated in Australia and New Zealand to commemorate the service and sacrifice of their soldiers who fought in the two World Wars. It is a day of pride and patriotism, and a day to remember the bravery and commitment of those who served.

The day is marked with ceremonies, parades, and services across the country. It is a day of reflection and respect for those who served and for those who continue to serve.

The ANZAC spirit is one of courage, sacrifice, and service. It is a spirit that is celebrated and remembered on Anzac Day.

Anzac Day is a day of unity and togetherness. It is a day to come together and to remember the sacrifices of those who served.

The day is a time to reflect on the history and to appreciate the sacrifices that were made. It is a day to remember the courage and dedication of those who served.

On this day, we remember the brave men and women who served and sacrificed their lives for our country. We remember their courage and their sacrifice.

Anzac Day is a day to remember the past and to look towards the future. It is a day to honor those who served and to honor the sacrifices that were made.

We honor the memory of those who served and who sacrificed their lives for our country.

We remember the courage of those who served.

We remember the sacrifice of those who served.

We remember the ANZAC spirit.

We remember Anzac Day.

We remember the brave men and women who served.

We remember the courage and sacrifice of those who served.

We remember the ANZAC spirit.

We remember Anzac Day.

We remember the brave men and women who served.

We remember the courage and sacrifice of those who served.

We remember the ANZAC spirit.

We remember Anzac Day.

We remember the brave men and women who served.

We remember the courage and sacrifice of those who served.

We remember the ANZAC spirit.

We remember Anzac Day.

We remember the brave men and women who served.

We remember the courage and sacrifice of those who served.

We remember the ANZAC spirit.

We remember Anzac Day.

We remember the brave men and women who served.

We remember the courage and sacrifice of those who served.

We remember the ANZAC spirit.

We remember Anzac Day.

We remember the brave men and women who served.

We remember the courage and sacrifice of those who served.

We remember the ANZAC spirit.

We remember Anzac Day.