HEROISM IN FACE OF DISASTER

RECORD FLOOD IN YARRA

HOMES SUBMERGED
BUILDINGS WASHED AWAY
SEVERAL BUSINESSES IN DANGER

River Flooded With Debris

Inlet Creek has swollen to a high level, washing away fences and property in the area. The river has surged through the town, carrying away trees and furniture. The forecast for the next few days is for continued heavy rain, which will cause further flooding.

FLOODS IN OTHER DISTRICTS

THORNTON ISOLATED

In the Thornton district, the river has risen to a height of 10 feet, and the town is now isolated. The water has flooded many homes, and the residents are in desperate need of food and shelter. The authorities are doing their best to provide aid to those affected.

CONDITION OF ROADS

Information for Motorists

Road conditions are reported to be poor in many areas due to the floodwaters. Drivers are advised to exercise caution when traveling through the affected areas. The authorities are working to clear the roads as quickly as possible.

A Test of Importance

Those suffering from illness are in need of medical attention. The medical staff are working tirelessly to provide care to those in need. Those who are able to offer assistance are urged to come forward.

A Test of Kindness

Many residents have been displaced by the floodwaters. Those who are able to offer shelter or food are encouraged to assist those in need.

A Test of Loyalty

Those who have been affected by the floodwaters are urged to remain calm and patient. The authorities are doing their best to provide aid to those in need.

A Test of the Nation

The nation is united in the face of this disaster. The authorities are working tirelessly to provide aid to those affected. The community is encouraged to come together and support those in need.

The MUTUAL Store Ltd.

Opposite Flinders Street Station

Newspaper Story

The Argus, Monday, December 3, 1934