WITHDRAWAL FROM THE MINISTRY

COUNTRY PARTY'S MOMENTOUS DECISION
CONFERENCE TAKES SECRET BALLOT

WHAT WILL MESSRS. DUNSTAN, ALLAN, AND GOUDE DO?

By 27 votes to 14, a joint conference of the central council of the Victorian Country party and the Parliamentary branch of the party decided last night to demand the resignation of the Ministry. In the event of the three Country party Ministers (Messrs. Dunstan, Allan, and Godfrey) not resigning, a vote of no-confidence in the Ministry will be taken on the birthday of Mr. Stanley Bruce, who is likely to be refused the opportunity of a vote of confidence. In the event of the Government being defeated, the Cabinet will resign and a new government will be formed. It is expected that the Ministry will be defeated, as the vote is expected to be 27 to 14 in favour of the motion. The conference is understood to be opposed to the Ministry's policy of cutting down the budget, and the vote is likely to be taken next week. The conference is expected to meet again next week to consider the position of the party. The Ministry is expected to fall next week.
