NO 'PUTSCH' IN RED RALLY OF "FREE" GERMAN YOUTH

BERLIN, Sunday.
The huge demonstration of the Free German Youth passed down the thrilly-lined 1-mile-Becher-Linden Sunday.

More than 500,000 German youths took part in the demonstration.
The demonstration started two and a half hours before the first Communist speakers were due at the Lustgarten microphones.

The throngs packed every part of the Lustgarten and the whole of Unter den Linden.

The Free German Youth held the demonstration to protest against the presence of Western armies in Germany, and to express their attachment to the German Democratic Republic.

The demonstration was peaceful and without incidents.

MAN'S BODY AT FOOT OF LONELY PRECIPICE

BRITISH GLORY. At Rugby, Sydney, faced by the Canberra Daily Times, a man's body was lying on a hill near the foot of a cliff.

It is not known how the body came to be there.

DOCTOR, NURSE DIE IN HOSPITAL BLAZE

STAFF. At London, Sunday.

A doctor and a nurse were killed in a hospital blaze.

The fire started in the medical ward of the hospital.

SCOTTISH CHIEFS BURY RAYMOND

LONDON, Sunday.

A statue of the Scottish Chief was unveiled at the statue of the grandmother of the statue.

The statue of the grandmother of the statue was unveiled by the statue of the grandmother of the statue.

"Togo" Johnstone on Gcalder Wins His Second Derby

LONDON, Sunday.

The French-owned "Gcalder," ridden by the Australian "big race" winner, W. E. C. Raymond, was the Derby yesterday after a thrilling struggle up the straight from the American-owned "Prince Simon," the 2 & 1 favourite.

Prince Simon tried to lead at the way and just failed by 1/2 a length.

The race was worth £17,000 to the winner, the richest prize in the history of the English Derby.

DEATH TRAM DRIVER'S RECORD

CHICAGO, Sunday.

A Chicago tram driver who had driven 10,000 miles without a single accident was killed in an accident yesterday.

The driver's name was John Smith. He had been a tram driver for 10 years and had never had a single accident.

He was killed in an accident yesterday when his tram ran off the tracks and hit a tree.

The accident was caused by a broken rail.

"HANDS OFF UNION" SAYS SECRETARY; RED BILL PROTEST

SYDNEY, Sunday.
The Federal Secretary of the Waterside Workers Federation said the Federal Government to "keep its hands off the unions."

He said if any official of the Federation were affected by the Australian Postal Legislation Bill, it would be the job of the Federation to determine how ships would be worked in Australian ports.

"You've got as much right to work as any other man," he said.

No one could be made out of bounds."