July's Sixth Cycle Death

Motorcyclist William John Gregory Flishna (20), of Wellington St, Mt. Lawley, was fatally injured early today when the wheels of a bus ran over him near Guildford. This was the sixth motor cycle fatality in the Perth police district this month, and the 11th fatality this year.

A female pedestrian, Mrs. F. Jackson (22), of 80, Mount Lawley, was also injured in the accident. She was taken to the hospital with a fractured leg.

Flishna died on the way to the hospital. His motor cycle was in the street.

The rubber covering of one of the bus wheels had been removed by a wheel-bender who was working in the garage at the time of the accident.

Driver of the bus was Mr. J. H. L. C. W. Smith, of 11, New Leicester St, East Fremantle. He was taking a bus from the Federal Bus Co's Guildford depot to the city at the time of the accident.

The accident occurred at the corner of Mount Lawley and Didsbury Sts, about 12.45 am. Flishna was thrown under the left rear wheel of the bus and was killed on arrival at the hospital about 1.30 am.

Flishna was taken by the police where he died. John Gregory Flishna, of Wellington St, Mt. Lawley, 20, but was dead on arrival at the hospital.

Victor And Vanquished

OLD MAN'S CAR FLUNG CLEAR BY TRAIN

An 82-year-old man had a remarkable escape from death or serious injury when his car was hit by a train on the East Guildford level crossing today.

The engine crashed into the rear of the car, swinging it around and throwing it clear.

Driver of the car was Thomas Lindsey Henzell, of Denman Ave, East Guildford. He was unharmed but his car was damage.

The accident occurred on the East Guildford level crossing, but the train was only going at about 10 m.p.h.