CALL TO POLICE NABS TWO SUSPECTS

Prompt action by a householder last night resulted in the arrest of two men in the Perth Police headquarters within a few minutes of the robbing of houses.

The first notice to call the police was received by Mr. W. J. Banks, who entered the house in Railway Parade and announced that he had found the window open, and that his watch had been stolen.

Mr. Banks was immediately arrested and brought to the police station, where he was charged with theft.

The second notice to call the police was received by Mr. J. W. Smith, who entered the house in Park Street and announced that his watch had been stolen.

Mr. Smith was immediately arrested and brought to the police station, where he was charged with theft.

The police are now investigating the matter, and further notices are expected.

FORM IN PICTURES

POLICE SCOURED BUSH FOR ARMED BANDIT

MELBOURNE, Sat.—A bandit believed to be armed with an automatic rifle is being hunted for a second time in two weeks by a police posse in the Kalamunda-Olinda bush in the Shire of Cootamundra.

From Olinda he sent his will to his mother at Brunswick-west and approached her is determined not to be taken alive.

The man is known to the police as Edward Davis (31), an ex-prisoner. It is suspected that he was a member of the police posse in the Kalamunda-Olinda bush in the Shire of Cootamundra.

POLICE SCOUR BUSH FOR ARMED BANDIT

MELBOURNE, Sat.—A bandit believed to be armed with an automatic rifle is being hunted for a second time in two weeks by a police posse in the Kalamunda-Olinda bush in the Shire of Cootamundra.

From Olinda he sent his will to his mother at Brunswick-west and approached her is determined not to be taken alive.

The man is known to the police as Edward Davis (31), an ex-prisoner. It is suspected that he was a member of the police posse in the Kalamunda-Olinda bush in the Shire of Cootamundra.

POLICE SCOUR BUSH FOR ARMED BANDIT

MELBOURNE, Sat.—A bandit believed to be armed with an automatic rifle is being hunted for a second time in two weeks by a police posse in the Kalamunda-Olinda bush in the Shire of Cootamundra.

From Olinda he sent his will to his mother at Brunswick-west and approached her is determined not to be taken alive.

The man is known to the police as Edward Davis (31), an ex-prisoner. It is suspected that he was a member of the police posse in the Kalamunda-Olinda bush in the Shire of Cootamundra.

POLICE SCOUR BUSH FOR ARMED BANDIT

MELBOURNE, Sat.—A bandit believed to be armed with an automatic rifle is being hunted for a second time in two weeks by a police posse in the Kalamunda-Olinda bush in the Shire of Cootamundra.

From Olinda he sent his will to his mother at Brunswick-west and approached her is determined not to be taken alive.

The man is known to the police as Edward Davis (31), an ex-prisoner. It is suspected that he was a member of the police posse in the Kalamunda-Olinda bush in the Shire of Cootamundra.

POLICE SCOUR BUSH FOR ARMED BANDIT

MELBOURNE, Sat.—A bandit believed to be armed with an automatic rifle is being hunted for a second time in two weeks by a police posse in the Kalamunda-Olinda bush in the Shire of Cootamundra.

From Olinda he sent his will to his mother at Brunswick-west and approached her is determined not to be taken alive.

The man is known to the police as Edward Davis (31), an ex-prisoner. It is suspected that he was a member of the police posse in the Kalamunda-Olinda bush in the Shire of Cootamundra.