PORT FINE

Under the auspices of the St. Paul's Church of England, Mr. Dwyer, and acting in the absence of the Honorary Secretary, presided at the annual meeting of the Port Fine Club, held at the volunteer hall on Wednesday night, 24th November. The President reported that during the past year the Club had enjoyed considerable prosperity, and thanked the members for their generous support. He presented a cheque of $100 to the Benevolent Fund of the Port Fine Club. The President then proceeded to conduct the business of the evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Mr. J. Martin; Vice-Presidents—Mr. Donovan; Treasurer—Mr. White. The accounts were read and adopted, and the Club's finances were considered satisfactory. The President then declared the meeting closed.

Mrs. Jan, October 31st. Today the twenty-first of the month, the annual holiday for the members of the Port Fine Club was held at Port Fine. The day was spent in a most successful and enjoyable manner. The weather was pleasant, and as usual the members of the Club were out and about, enjoying the fine weather. The Club's finances were considered satisfactory, and the President expressed his thanks to all who had contributed to the Club's prosperity. He then proceeded to conduct the business of the evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Mr. J. Martin; Vice-Presidents—Mr. Donovan; Treasurer—Mr. White. The accounts were read and adopted, and the Club's finances were considered satisfactory. The President then declared the meeting closed.

Mrs. Jan, October 31st. Today the twenty-first of the month, the annual holiday for the members of the Port Fine Club was held at Port Fine. The day was spent in a most successful and enjoyable manner. The weather was pleasant, and as usual the members of the Club were out and about, enjoying the fine weather. The Club's finances were considered satisfactory, and the President expressed his thanks to all who had contributed to the Club's prosperity. He then proceeded to conduct the business of the evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Mr. J. Martin; Vice-Presidents—Mr. Donovan; Treasurer—Mr. White. The accounts were read and adopted, and the Club's finances were considered satisfactory. The President then declared the meeting closed.

Mrs. Jan, October 31st. Today the twenty-first of the month, the annual holiday for the members of the Port Fine Club was held at Port Fine. The day was spent in a most successful and enjoyable manner. The weather was pleasant, and as usual the members of the Club were out and about, enjoying the fine weather. The Club's finances were considered satisfactory, and the President expressed his thanks to all who had contributed to the Club's prosperity. He then proceeded to conduct the business of the evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Mr. J. Martin; Vice-Presidents—Mr. Donovan; Treasurer—Mr. White. The accounts were read and adopted, and the Club's finances were considered satisfactory. The President then declared the meeting closed.

PORT FINE

Under the auspices of the St. Paul's Church of England, Mr. Dwyer, and acting in the absence of the Honorary Secretary, presided at the annual meeting of the Port Fine Club, held at the volunteer hall on Wednesday night, 24th November. The President reported that during the past year the Club had enjoyed considerable prosperity, and thanked the members for their generous support. He presented a cheque of $100 to the Benevolent Fund of the Port Fine Club. The President then proceeded to conduct the business of the evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Mr. J. Martin; Vice-Presidents—Mr. Donovan; Treasurer—Mr. White. The accounts were read and adopted, and the Club's finances were considered satisfactory. The President then declared the meeting closed.

Port Fine, October 31st. Today the twenty-first of the month, the annual holiday for the members of the Port Fine Club was held at Port Fine. The day was spent in a most successful and enjoyable manner. The weather was pleasant, and as usual the members of the Club were out and about, enjoying the fine weather. The Club's finances were considered satisfactory, and the President expressed his thanks to all who had contributed to the Club's prosperity. He then proceeded to conduct the business of the evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Mr. J. Martin; Vice-Presidents—Mr. Donovan; Treasurer—Mr. White. The accounts were read and adopted, and the Club's finances were considered satisfactory. The President then declared the meeting closed.