Matters of Moment.

Announcements suitable to this column are published free of charge. Information prior to publication is much desired. Communications should reach "Figaro" office, Norman Chambers, Creek street, not later than Wednesday forenoon.

Balls, ] Receptions, \[Etc.

(Two Tickets at least should always be forwarded for Ball, Concerts, or any public function.)

Lists of visitors at hotels which are advertised in "Figaro" are inserted without charge, when the hotel not advertised a charge of sixpence a line will be made.

Engagements.

The engagement is announced of Miss Lotty Donaldson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson (Payne-street, Tor- wood, Brisbane), to Mr. A. Standley, youngest son of Mr and Mrs. A. Standley (Hidcman-street, Kangaroo Point).

The engagement is announced of Miss F. E. M'Aloney, daughter of Mrs. J. F. M'Aloney (of Maryatville, Adelaide), to Mr. William Alpin, son of Mr. John Alpin (of North Queensland). The wedding is arranged to take place on the 14th December.

The engagement is announced of Miss M. E. M'Aloney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. M'Aloney (of Maryatville, Adelaide), to Mr. William Alpin, son of Mr. John Alpin (of North Queensland). The wedding is arranged to take place on December 27th.

The wedding of Miss Pearl Slaughter (of Clifton) to Mr. E. Rees (of Bank of New South Wales) is arranged to take place early next month.

The marriage of Miss A. Jones, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Jones, to Mr. W. J. F. Van Cooten, eldest son of Mr. J. H. Van Cooten, has been announced to take place at Tinana, Maryborough, on the 14th instant.

THERE'S NO TIME LIKE CHRISTMAS for solid enjoyment. There's no whisky like Ballie Niriel Jarvie for solid pleasure. Order supplies for Christmas now!

Marriages.

"Married in veil of November mist, Fortune your wedding ring has kissed; Married in days of December cheer, Love's star shines brighter from year to year."

—Old English Saw.

October 26th.—Miss Alma Australia Sullivan, of Bowna- ville, Nambucca River, to Mr. Harold Cooper Mose- ley, of Lewisham; at the Hunter-Ballie Memorial Church, Annandale.

October 31st.—Miss Eleanor Ellen Carman, of Orient, to Mr. Stanley Benjamin West, of New South Wales; at the Roman Catholic Church, Stenmary Hills.

McWHIRTER'S, The Centre of Attraction THE VALLEY.

A SCARCE LINE.—Cream Delaine Blouse Lengths, all handsomely embroidered in pink, sky, turquoise, navy, green old rose, gold, and black silk embroidery. Worth 8/6 each.

Furnished Complete, £40

As the Marrying Season is approaching, we cordially invite Young Couples to call for our FURNISH THROUGHOUT!" We offer to furnish you Four Rooms fully furnished for £40. Our £40 offer is a marvellous one. We know there are other offers, but there are none like this. Our £40 offer contains more and better Furniture than those of other firms. Four Rooms cannot be furnished as well elsewhere for anything near the same price. Talk is cheap, but facts prove. It will pay you to investigate our offer in preference to others. We prefer you to come and see all the different items which compose this money-saving proposition, and you will then get an idea of beauty of design, perfect finish, and construction, and general utility of our furniture. Everything required to furnish four rooms complete is included in this offer. OUR CONFIDENTIAL CREDIT PLAN MAY HELP YOU.

Rhoades & Co., The Shop Low Prices Built WICKHAM STREET.

November 2nd.—Miss Agnes Dove, of Lewisham, to Mr. William Hegarty, of Townsville; at St. Thomas's Church, Lewisham.

November 14th.—Miss Robina Waite to Mr. Douglas Wharton, of Proserpine, at St. Paul's Church, Proserpine.

November 26th.—Miss Rose Ethel Prescott, of Melbourne, to Mr. H. A. Cox, of North Queensland; at Christ Church, Palmerston.

November 16th.—Miss Mary Jane Reynolds, of Mowbray Vale, near Port Douglas, to Mr. Michael Connolly, of Tatham, Richmond River, New South Wales; at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Port Douglas.

November 16th.—Miss Sarah Hegarty, of Golden Gate, to Mr. Charles Carke, of Croydon; at the Roman Catholic Presbytery.

November 17th.—Miss Sarah Presho, of Reddy Creek, to Mr. Oliver Goldsmith, of Nunbank; at Reddy Creek Station, Taroom.

November 23rd.—Miss Florence Mabel Smith, of Ipswich, to Mr. Oliver William Allen, of North Ipswich; at the residence of the bride's parents.

November 23rd.—Miss Eliza Beatrice Laver, of Mudgeeraba, to Mr. Benjamin Thomas Franklin, of Clayfield, Bris- bane; at the Presbyterian Church, Mudgeeraba.

November 23rd.—Miss Lavina McQuaker, of Stanthorpe, to Mr. Arthur Chandler, of Mareeba, North Queensland; at St. Paul's Church, Stanthorpe.

November 28th.—Miss Florence Neep, of Alaimac Hill, to Mr. Charles Parker; at St. Paul's Church.

November 29th.—Miss Anna A. Robertson, late of Portland, Oregon, America, to Mr. William Street, of Brisbane; at Emoh, West End.

November 30th.—Miss Gladys Annl Wennman, of Rosaline, Brisbane, to Mr. Jeremiah Dunne, of Burpengary; at St. Stephen's Cathedral.

November 30th.—Miss Methilda Genevieve Nolan, of Petrie Terrace, Brisbane, to Mr. Edward Michael Flanagan, of Wallaroo; at St. Stephen's Cathedral.

Our Price 5/11 each.

Japanese Silk Embroidered Blouse Lengths, pretty designs and a good summery silk, price only 8/6 each.

DRESSES BARGAIN.—One Line, One Value, One Price. 54 Pieces only, lovely Crepolines, now so much in demand. Usually sold at 6d. yard. Clearing price, 2/11 dozen. Perfect goods, less than half price. The earlier you come the better the bargain. There's no fear of paying more than you should when shopping at McWHIRTER'S, Cash Drapers, The Valley.