

Trove Strategic Advisory Committee

Key Messages

15-16 May 2025

New TSAC members

The Committee welcomed the two new TSAC members:

- Catherine Clark, CEO and State Librarian, State Library of Western Australia, and
- Maggie Patton, Head of Collection Acquisition and Curation, State Library of New South Wales.

Current Projects

TSAC noted the implementation of the Trove Metadata Manager (TMM) and Trove Partner Resource Sharing (TPRS) systems marks a major infrastructure upgrade. These platforms enhance metadata control, streamline interlibrary loans, and support sustainable service delivery across Australia's libraries. The NLA will continue to consult and provide training as stage two of these projects develop.

Discussions

At the May meeting, TSAC noted plans to strengthen engagement with Australian universities—where over 90% already reference the platform—through tailored content, webinars, and partnerships.

TSAC acknowledged continued efforts to broaden partnerships via the Retain and Expand program, which engages smaller cultural institutions to highlight regional collections and stories.

Further discussion focused on the renewed emphasis on cataloguing authority data, with Trove exploring its role in supporting sustainable identity management across the library and research sectors.
