Financial hardship

As was the case last year, the Library is extending the option of applying for financial hardship considerations to all Partners who may be experiencing significant budget impacts as a result of COVID-19. Institutions in this position are encouraged to contact Partner Support to discuss available options

Partner survey and focus groups

Members discussed the themes that emerged through the workshop and seven focus groups held in June. These were grouped into four areas for further consideration by the Library: Communication, Leadership, Education and Technology.

Free trial

Australian galleries, archives, museums and historical societies are invited to participate in a free trial of Trove Collaborative Services. Participants will be able to experience many benefits including automated 'direct to Trove' data loading and insights into how their collection is being used.
